Dear Friends,

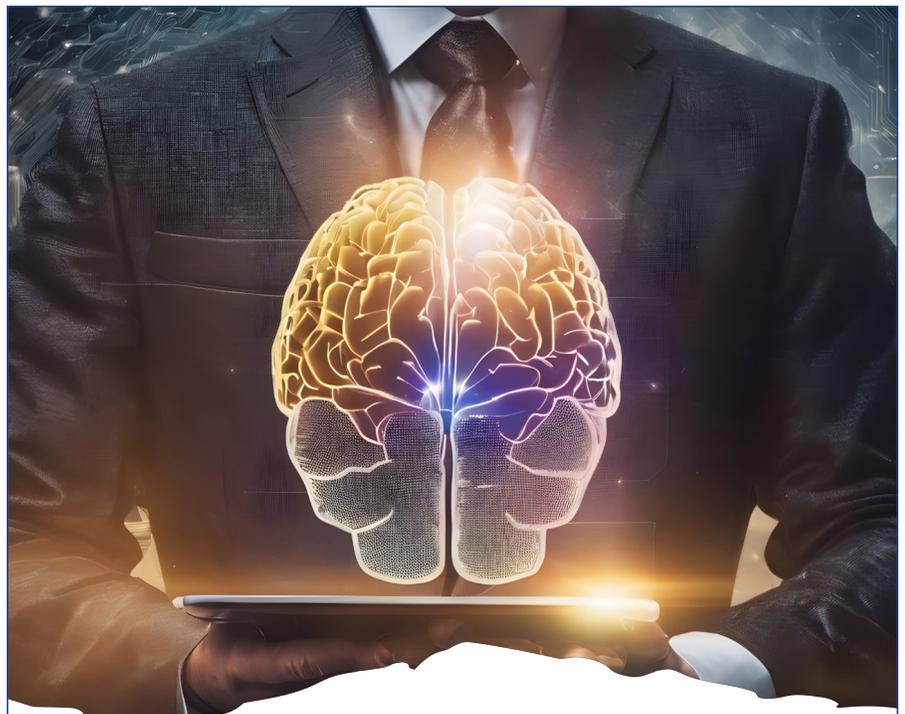

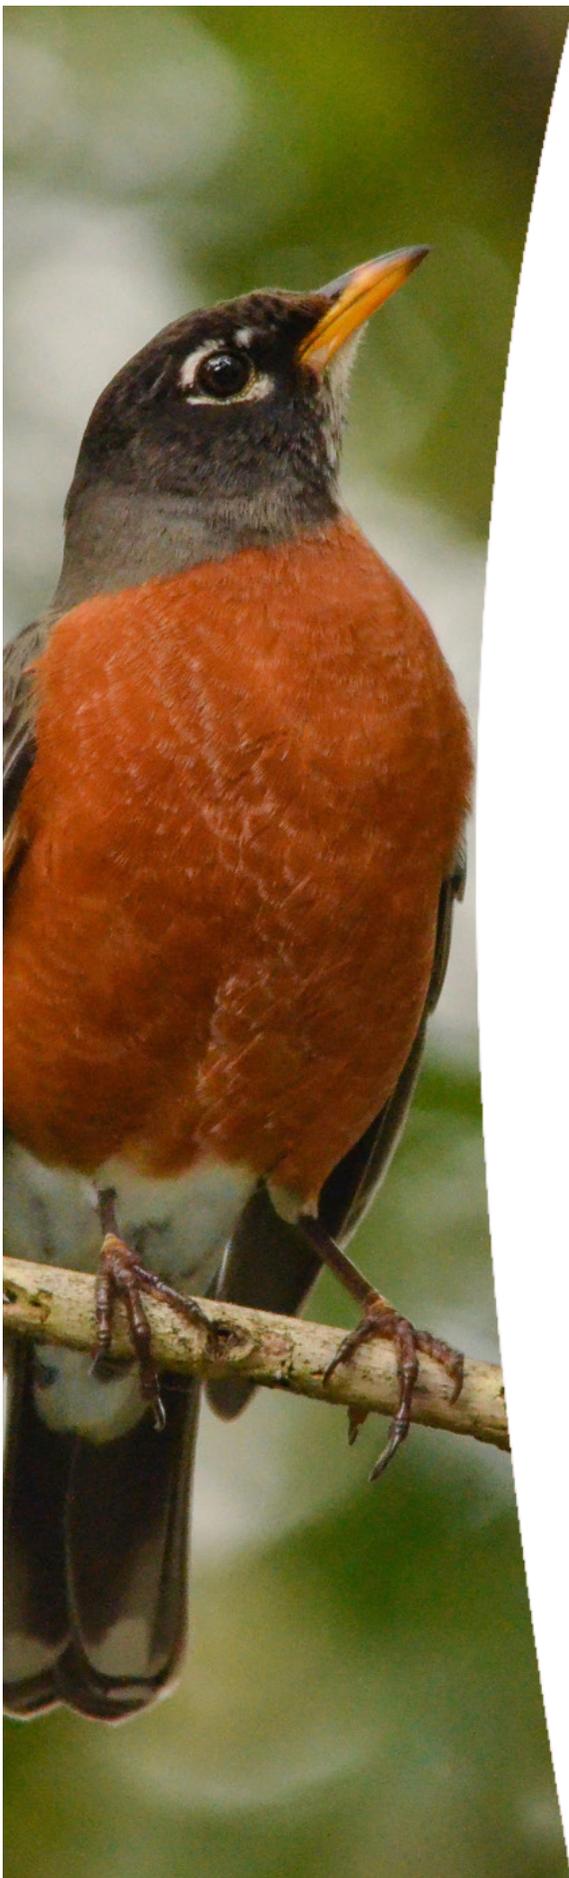

Palm Sunday is coming up this weekend, and Holy Week follows. You can read all about our plans for Holy Week in the newest edition of the Messenger that lands in your inbox later today.

One schedule change to note for next week – there will not be a Thursday morning Bible Study and there will be no Thursday morning service next Thursday, April 2. Our focus that day will be on our Maundy Thursday service at 7.30pm.

This weekend is the perfect time to inform us about your plans for Easter Memorial Flowers. Easter Flower Envelopes are in the Atrium, and in the seat pockets in the church. Please make sure the office receives your information by noon on Monday, March 30.

I hope to see you often next week!

Fire at 9 Acres Farm

You may have heard that, two weeks ago, Carolyne's and Rodney's farm in Grimsby lost their barn and farm-gate shop in a devastating fire. Even if you can't donate right now, a quick share can help it reach people who may be able to support their hard work and community spirit. Please consider sharing or donating if you can. Every bit of help makes a difference as they start to rebuild.
