Dear Friends,

I've written to you about our approaching empty-nesterhood. Think of me tonight – I'll be attending my last high school band concert.

I want to thank everyone who participated in last Sunday's flag raising. May 17 only occasionally falls on a Sunday – it was lovely to make this public witness with you, and to celebrate with you!

A couple of dates to note this weekend: Music in the Garden comes your way tomorrow evening. Yes, mention "gardens" in the name, but the event will be indoors, so you don't need to limit your footwear choices! That's a 6pm start on Friday May 22 for a potluck dinner and entertainment by local musicians to follow. Also this weekend, please lend a hand for our spring cleanup. For this one I do recommend sturdy footwear. That's a 9am start on Saturday May 23.
